Farmers' Market on Broadway Canceled – 9/11/19

GREEN BAY, WI – After consulting with the National Weather Service and the chance of heavy downpour, lightning, gusts of wind the Farmers' Market on Broadway will be CANCELED tonight – Wednesday, September 11.

“Safety is one of our top priorities in the Broadway District. Given the unpredictable weather pattern and uncertainty of the continued weather and flooding to hit our area, we felt this was the best decision to ensure the safety of event attendees, vendors and entertainers,” said Chelsea Kocken, Marketing and Events Manager, On Broadway, Inc. “The weather this week has also made it tough on our produce vendors to harvest their crops for this event.”
